

7/28/82
George H. Perry Sr.

NEW BEDFORD — George H. Perry Sr., 89, formerly of Acushnet, died yesterday after a brief illness. He was the widower of Hilma L. (Vaughan) Perry and the son of the late Manuel A. Perry and the late Emma (LeClair) Perry.

He died at the home of his daughter.

He was born in New Bedford and lived all of his life in Greater New Bedford. He was a member of North Baptist Church in New Bedford and was a shipper at Continental Screw Co. of New Bedford, retiring in 1960 after 50 years of employment.

Mr. Perry was a member of the former Sippican Tribe No. 77, Improved Order of the Redmen of New Bedford.

Survivors include two sons, Donald I. of Nashville, Tenn., and George H. Jr. of Acushnet; two daughters, Mrs. Luiz daSilva of New Bedford and Mrs. Joseph Turner of Windham Center, Conn.; two brothers, Anthony of Pawtucket and Roger of Providence; two sisters, Elaine Cote of New Bedford and Doris of Providence; seven grandchildren; and seven great-grandchildren.

Arrangements are by the Kirby Funeral Home, 61 Tarkiln Hill Road.